From this room you can access a large storage room with power sockets which could be used as a small study. On the left is the master bedroom with built in storage, en-suite shower room and views of the terrace.

Outside there is a lovely pool area, all tiled with charcol BBQ, an outbuilding which could be converted into a bar/kitchen, a wooden pergola offering a shaded seating area, and stairs which lead to a roof terrace on top of the finca with far reaching views. Furthermore, you will find a selection of fruit trees, ample space for growing your own vegetables, water irrigation with deposit tank, a pre-fabricated shed and a 38m² double garage. ABOUT ALHAURIN DE LA TORRE

Alhaurín de la Torre is a town full of life and atmosphere located in the province of Malaga, just 20 minutes by car from Málaga International Airport.

The streets of the old town still retain part of its Moorish style. It has numerous educational centres, sports facilities, cyclist lanes; and its public gardens and parks are absolutely stunning.

Traditionally, like all the towns in the Guadalhorce Valley, it was an agricultural town, where plantations of oranges, lemons and olive trees still cover its landscape. However, thanks to the expansion of the metropolitan area of Malaga and its proximity to the Costa del Sol, it was forced to grow and switch to a more modern construction style as the main source of the town's economy. This has changed it into a modern town, offering a large number of commercial premises and fantastic restaurant, amongst many others.

Its location makes this town an idyllic place to live, surrounded by nature but yet very close to the beaches the Costa del Sol has to offer.
